Sir,

I have the honour to state the strength of the menial staff of Ajjampur Municipality consists of only one peon. As the services of another peon were quite essential the President appointed a hand on 1-12-1944 on Rs.12 per mensem plus 8 dearness allowance. The extra provision made in the current year's budget was deleted by me as it was not covered by sanction of proper authority. The Minor Municipal Council, Ajjampura have resolved on 31st August 1945 that sanction may be obtained for the continuance of the post permanently. The total expenditure in this behalf will be Rs.240/- per annum (Rs.12 + 8)x12 = 240. and it is proposed to meet the expenditure out of t out the closing balance of the funds of the Municipality.

In these circumstances, I request that sanction of Government may be kindly obtained for the proposal of the Ajjampura Municipal Council, though this expenditure on account of establishment charges is irregular and that sanction should have been obtained before making the appointment.

The connected records are enclosed for favour of reference.
